2.126(a) Critical

Access and inspection of records and property; submission of itineraries.

The licensee refused to allow USDA inspectors to conduct an inspection at approximately 12:30 PM. I spoke directly to the licensee. My supervisor also spoke directly to the licensee by speaker phone. My supervisor and I both asked the licensee multiple times if we could do an inspection. The licensee was busy with a move and would not accompany me into his kennel to conduct an inspection. His original response was that he was too busy to accompany me on the inspection. I explained to him what the possible consequences could be if he refused and encouraged him to do the inspection with me. He tried to delay the inspection by up to two hours. My supervisor then directed me to leave and we would have to cite it as a refusal.

Not allowing APHIS officials to conduct an inspection doesn't allow APHIS officials to ensure animal welfare standards are being met. The licensee must allow APHIS officials to conduct an inspection when those officials show up to conduct an inspection. Correct starting on 9/14/26.

No exit interview was conducted.

You may appeal all or part of any inspection report by submitting a written statement contesting the findings—along with any supporting documentation—to the Deputy Administrator. Appeals of routine, focused, or attempted inspections must be received within 21 days of report issuance as shown by the signature line of this report.

Appeals may be sent by email to AnimalCare@usda.gov.

Appeals sent by mail should be addressed to:
