FACILITIES, GENERAL.

Supplies of food and bedding shall be stored in facilities which adequately protect supplies against deterioration, molding, or contamination. The food and bedding was stored in the animal room and supplies were open and setting on top of animal caging or on the floor. These items left open can easily become contaminated by splashing of food, urine or fecal waste as well as by insects or vermin. The containers for food and bedding need to be kept covered and the trash can needs a lid.

Correct by: 08-25-2016

This inspection and exit interview were conducted with a facility representative. The inspection report is being emailed to the Licensee as the representative needed to leave the facility.
